FACTIONAL WAR IN CHURCH AGAIN GROWING BITTER

Pastor Parker From Pulpit Refuses to Recognize Meeting Called to Select Successor

Once more the Kawaiahao church new is coming to the front. This time, Rev. H. H. Parker, pastor of the church, questions authority of a certain member of the church, presumably J. K. Kamanoulu, to call a special meeting tonight for the purpose of considering asking the pastor to resign a general meeting of all the members of the church two weeks from next Sunday, according to the terms of the handbook in regard to church matters for the selection of a new pastor for the church.

Last Saturday Mr. Kamanoulu announced that a special meeting would be held tonight in the church for this purpose. During the services yesterday Mr. Parker declared from the pulpit that such announcement was absolutely unauthorized, and that whoever made such announcement was "butting in" on another man's affairs.

Mr. Kamanoulu, seen today, was determined to hold a meeting, irrespective of Mr. Parker's announcement. It is generally believed that the church tonight will not be open for this special meeting.

With the announcement by Mr.
Parker about a week ago that he would resign the pastorate of the church at the end of this year, Mr.
Kamanoulu and others are seriously thinking of calling Rev. Akaho Akana of the Young People's League, to succeed the veteran pastor of the church. The Parker faction, it is reported, is in favor of Rev. Henry Judd. The split between the two factions, it is predicted, will eventually result in the breaking away of members from the church. Some of the oldest members, on this account, have joined other churches in the city.
Already a petition is out asking Mr.
Parker to reconsider his resignation.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Luster to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

BLANCHE SWEET
IS AT LIBERTY

Blanche Sweet, idol of millions of followers of the silent drama, is always assured a warm welcome at the Liberty theater—the "Home of Paramount Pictures," and, of necessity the stopping off place of Blanche Sweet while in Honolulu. Twice welcome is this star when in the cast is another star also a favorite of long standing with the select Liberty audiences. Thomas Meighan appears in the current feature at this theater, "The Silent Partner," as co-star with Blanche Sweet and the combination is one that it would be hard to beat.

CHAPLIN REEL
SEEN AT HAWAII

Charlie Chaplin—the real one—may remain in Honolulu for a short time, but Charlie Chaplin—the reel one—is almost a permanent fixture. Provided the management of the Hawaii theater can so arrange, C. C. will be a perpetual attraction.

There is little difference with C. C. as to the title of his attractions. Just so long as the leading comedian of the screen is in the billing Honolulu and every other city in the world will turn out almost en masse. The current Chaplin attraction at the Hawaii happens to be entitled "The Fireman," and the title is a good one as it is an excuse for Chaplin himself to appear for a couple of reels of laugh production. As is customary with Chaplin's films there is nothing to it but laughter, although that commodity is more plentiful than at any time at the Hawaii since the last appearance of the same star.

Lillian Gish also appears as a Hawaii star in "An Innocent Magdalene," a strong Triangle-Fine Arts feature.
This is one of the Hawaii favorites.

"ALOHA, KAKOU," SHOUTS
CHARLIE CHAPLIN, AND
SAILS AWAY FOR HILO

Boysishly beaming with satisfaction at the great crowd present, Charlie Chaplin reeled up the gangway of the Mauna Kea Saturday afternoon before departing for his visit to the volcano.

Minus his makeup, "moustache, cane and massive shoes," some of the many children present could not be convinced that their screen idol had really come to life in Honolulu until the comedian twisted his ears, wrinkled his face and let his feet perform. Then there was a chorus of childish voices shouting, "See Charlie!"

Charlie had scarcely boarded the steamer until life and Demosthenes Lycurgus had established an entente and posed with arms locked for a squad of amateur photographers. Due to "Monty's" plentiful proportions there was grave danger of the Volcano hotel manager "hogging the camera," until Charlie was placed on the weather, or camera, side.

As the Mauna Kea pulled into the stream, the screen comedian waved a red bouquet, tipped his white flannel hat, shuffled three dance steps, did a "donkey" with his ears, smiled his Roosevelt smile, teeth and all, and shouted "Aloha kakou."
